

2007 Health Information Technology Commissioners

Robin Cole of Detroit, COO of Pro Care Health Plan, Inc. Ms. Cole is appointed to represent consumers for a term expiring August 3, 2010.

Dr. Gregory Forzley of Grand Rapids, medical director of informatics at Saint Mary's Health System. Dr. Forzley is appointed to represent doctors of medicine for a term expiring August 3, 2007.

Joseph Hohner of Canton, vice president and chief information officer at Blue Cross Blue Shield of Michigan. Mr Hohner is appointed to represent nonprofit health care corporations for a term expiring August 3, 2010.

Toshiki Masaki of Canton, public policy manager at Ford Motor Company. Mr. Masaki is appointed to represent purchasers and employers for a term expiring August 3, 2009.

Robert McDonough of Three Rivers, director of global public policy management at Pfizer. Mr. McDonough is appointed to represent pharmaceutical manufacturers for a term expiring August 3, 2008.

Dr. Mark Notman of East Lansing, associate professor, executive director of administrative services, and chief technical officer with the Michigan State University College of Osteopathic Medicine. Dr. Notman is appointed to represent schools of medicine in Michigan for a term expiring August 3, 2009.

Janet Olszewski of Williamston, director of the Michigan Department of Community Health. Director Olszewski is appointed for a term expiring August 3, 2008.

Robert Paul of Novi, COO and president of Compuware. Mr. Paul is appointed to represent members of the health information technology field for a term expiring August 3, 2010.

Thomas Lauzon of Shelby Township, Vice President/CIO of Health Plan of Michigan. Mr. Lauzon is appointed to represent health plans or other third party payers for a term expiring August 3, 2010.

Dr. Thomas Stevenson of Alto, associate professor and associate clinical medical manager with the Michigan State University College of Osteopathic Medicine. Dr. Stevenson is appointed to represent doctors of osteopathic medicine and surgery for a term expiring August 3, 2007.

Jeanne Strickland of Brighton, chief compliance officer with the University of Michigan Health System. Ms. Strickland is appointed to represent hospitals for a term expiring August 3, 2009.

Teri Takai of Troy, director of the Michigan Department of Information Technology. Director Takai is appointed for a term expiring August 3, 2008.

Larry Wagenknecht of Haslett, CEO of the Michigan Pharmacists Association. Mr. Wagenknecht is appointed to represent pharmacists for a term expiring August 3, 2010.